MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Acting Director, Intelligence Community StaffFROM: [REDACTED]
Director, Community Counterintelligence and Security Countermeasures Staff/ICS

25X1

SUBJECT: Draft Presidential Report (U)

1. Forwarded for your information is yet another draft of the Presidential Report on CI/CM. Insofar as possible in the time available and on the basis of work already done, the draft reflects all of the accommodations requested by the several players. The chapter on deficiencies has been eliminated. The language is, we hope, more appropriate to the purpose and more direct.

2. Concurrently with this distribution, copies are being delivered to the members of the original Stilwell Working Group for their review and comment. I hope to schedule a meeting of that group to review their comments next Thursday or Friday (11/12 September). The paper is still too long and contains too many changes to expect a reasonable review in a shorter time.

3. Copies are also going to the Chairman of the three IGs. This staff believes that the changes will accommodate most of Mr. Alderman's concerns and will take care of Judge Webster's specific objections, but will not meet the Judge's desire to eliminate all discussion of CI strategy and provide a brief summary paper. We also believe the changes will take care of Mr. Latham's specific objections but will not accommodate his desire for either a ranking of the many specified tasks or for some measure of the resource impacts. These last two tasks would take some additional months and the products would be both subjective and contentious. (Nevertheless, I believe that he is right in wanting such inclusions.)

4. In sum, we have a paper that may serve, albeit too long and lacking in some desirable parts. We should have Working Group inputs by 12 September. We do not yet know what sort of IG involvement may be demanded by the IG

Chairmen. A SIG-I review on 18 September may be possible if the IG Chairmen do not wish to hold formal reviews.

5. General Stilwell has not been in this week. He has turned in his badge.

6. I have attached copies of the memos to the IG Chairmen and the Working Group members.
